"OFF THE COB"

with Country Larsen

All of the hustle and bustle of pre-Christmas activities failed to have any effect on the attendance at the Chicago Dental Society's regular monthly meeting on December 18th, one of the best attended December meetings of the Society in many years. Present were 350 interested listeners to Dr. Robert B. Shira's excellent presentation on minor oral surgery problems. Dr. Shira, chief of Oral Surgery at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D. C., gave to all who heard him a much better understanding of the perplexing situations that we all encounter from time to time. We are grateful for a wonderful essay.

To add to this fine meeting was the occasion of the presentation of certificates and lapel pins to the men in our profession who have reached the 50-year mark in years of service in dentistry. We are justly proud of these men and their contribution to our profession. Dr. Thomas C. Starshak, President of the Illinois State Dental Society and Dr. Paul W. Clopper, Secretary of the State Society, made the presentation to each of the 50-year men present. Those so honored were: Drs. Charles A. Cardy, Edgar D. Coolidge, Alfred Erickson,

Z. D. Ford, Thomas E. Gilmore, Ben S. Partridge and L. A. Platts. Dr. Coolidge responded for the group with a most appropriate poem. The men had dinner with the officers of the Society, and understand they all did justice to a fine roast beef dinner. The following 50-year men were unable to be present at this meeting, but will receive their certificates at a later date: Drs. Henry Burgess, Joseph I. Comroe, J. P. Frey, R. D. LeFebvre, and D. J. Vita. Our hats are off to all of these fine men who have watched dentistry grow to its full stature as a profession.

It was great, too, to see our congenial secretary, George Teuscher, at the meeting, just returned from an extended trip to Australia.

President Ed Luebke adjourned the meeting with a wish that all present would enjoy a Merry Christmas and happy and prosperous New Year.

Once again I want to take the opportunity to urge all of you to invite any ethical dentist you may know, who is not a member of our Society, to join with us in reaping the benefits made possible by membership in the Chicago Dental Society.—Orville (Country) Larsen.

Victory – Now What?

On December 18th the final decree to enjoin the 24 dental laboratories which have been found guilty of the violation of the Illinois State Dental Practice Act, was entered by Judge Marovitz when he upheld the decision of Judge Padden. After years of legal effort to bring these men who have been practicing dentistry illegally to the bar of justice we have had our efforts rewarded. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois which upheld the constitutionality of the Dental Practice Act. It was further appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States which refused to review and a second appeal, for a re-hearing, to the Supreme Court was denied. We can truly say victory for the health and welfare of the people of the State of Illinois is ours.

To the officers and the Board members, upon whose shoulders lay the responsibility for the decision first to go forward with the plan, for their faith and perseverance through many an hour of crisis when things really looked almost hopeless, our deep gratitude for a job well done. To the committeemen and members who devoted countless hours in gathering evidence, giving every aid as the need arose, the sincere thanks of a grateful Society. To the entire office force for their complete cooperation and willingness to ever be of help, our sincere appreciation and gratitude. To our able and effective legal firm of Peterson, Rall, Conley & Ross and their brilliant member, Mr. John Porter, through whose legal acumen we were able to overcome every possible legal roadblock, our eternal thanks. To everyone who in any small way contributed to this victory of justice and for the health and welfare of the people of this great state of ours, our deep appreciation.

Lest we forget, we must express our appreciation to the officers and councilmen and members of the Illinois State Dental Society for their valuable aid both financial and advisory. It did much to aid in solving our great problem. Thanks!

Now that we are over the first hurdle, where do we go from here? The fight has just begun. In the few lines that follow, the writer attempts to suggest and to outline three or four activities essential to wiping out to a great degree this danger to the health of our people.

1. Proper law enforcement by the powers intrusted with that responsibility, the Department of Registration and Education and the State's attorney in each county. Without this there can be no real progress. Education may be effective for many and sufficient, another segment will be deterred from law violation because of the penalty, and still a lesser percentage can only be kept from illegal action by being jailed and thus removed from circulation. What we need is the same kind of treatment we use for those who steal, rob, or otherwise violate the criminal code. These men are equally dangerous.

2. Make every effort to aid the law enforcement agencies to track down the violators—know the laboratory with whom you do business; write specific instructions to your laboratory; under no circumstances send your patient to the laboratory; give as prompt service to the patient as possible.

3. Make every effort to cooperate with the ethical laboratory. Don't let price govern your choice of laboratory.

4. Make it your civic responsibility to know the State legislator in your district, as well as the State senator. If he is a man worthy of your support keep him informed. Keep yourself informed as to dentistry's legislative needs. If you are well enough acquainted with your legislator, send your name and his to the Society office. We need good contact men and the best kinds are the personal and professional contacts. Remember it was the fine legislators who had the welfare of the people at heart who defeated Bill 1118, in spite of tremendous pressure.

5. Join with other professions and crafts covered by the Department of Registration in procuring sufficient funds to provide adequate investigative and legal funds for the Department so it can do a job. One attorney and one or two investigators to police the 24 professions and crafts is woefully insufficient.

These are but a few of the things that you and I, as members of this great profession of ours, must do if the victory we have won at such great cost of time and money is to accomplish its purpose.

There are other things in the process of formulation or in active use that will help meet the problems that confront us. One is the accreditation plan of the Joint Committee of the Illinois State Dental Society and the Dental Laboratory Association of Illinois, under which the ethical laboratories which meet the standards that have been established will be designated. This should help to better acquaint the profession with those laboratories that are okay. However, this may be very helpful but it is no substitute for proper law enforcement.

Therefore, may you and I resolve at the beginning of 1957 that we shall do everything to cooperate in every way possible to see that our hard-earned victory is just the beginning of a fight to wipe out the scourge of the illegal practice of dentistry; that a militant, dedicated, ever-alert profession will do everything in its power to protect the health and welfare of the people of the State of Illinois and to prove that we are worthy of that trust by rendering the best possible service. Then we will know that we have fought the good fight and that we can be proud to be members of the dental profession.

LOYOLA'S NEW DEAN

The appointment of Dr. William P. Schoen, Jr., editor of the Illinois Dental Journal, as dean of Loyola university's school of dentistry has been announced by the Very Rev. James F. Maguire, S.J., Loyola's president.

Dr. Schoen succeeds Dr. Gustav Rapp who has been serving as acting dean since June when Dr. A. Raymond Baralt, Jr., left the dental school deanship to establish a school of dentistry at the University of Puerto Rico.

A member of Loyola's dental faculty since 1930, Dr. Schoen has been professor and chairman of the department of dental materials for the past three years. He has also been on the executive committee of Loyola's dental school since the committee's formation.

In addition, he has had a private practice at 6355 Broadway. Dr. Schoen, who is 50 years old, lives with his wife and three children at 1437 Glenlake Ave.

He has served as editor of the Illinois Dental Journal since 1942 and will continue in that position. He holds memberships in city, state and national dental societies and is a past-president of the Chicago Dental Society.

Dr. Schoen is the author of the dental materials laboratory manual used at Loyola's dental school, and has presented essays and papers before a score of dental groups.

He was graduated from Loyola's dental school in 1929 and received a master's degree in dental surgery in 1943. He was made a fellow in the American College of Dentists this past fall. He was born in Chicago and attended St. Ignatius grade school and Loyola academy before taking his predental courses at Loyola university.

Dr. Schoen will be the fifth dean of Loyola's dental school which was founded in 1883 as the Chicago College of Dental Surgery. The school became affiliated with Loyola in 1923.

MEETING OPEN TO ALL A.D.A. MEMBERS—(Nominal Fee)

The American Academy of Implant Dentures is pleased to announce the presentation of a display in the Scientific Exhibits Section.

The First General Session

Make your plans right now not to miss the First General Session of the Midwinter Meeting. It takes place in the Grand Ballroom of the Hilton on Monday night, February fourth. In keeping with everyone's current interest in the atomic bomb and the whole world of nuclear fission our program committee has scheduled a speaker who can tell us all about atomic energy in language and a style that we can all not only understand but thoroughly enjoy. It will be our distinct privilege to hear Dr. Hubert Newcomb Alyea, of the Department of Chemistry at Princeton, talk to us about "The Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy." He has spoken to many similar groups and proven to be most popular and interesting. He has appeared frequently on radio and television and has given to all who hear him a real comprehension of just how this terrible power can be harnessed for purposes other than those of destruction. This is by no means a super-scientific discussion of an abstruse phenomenon but a really fresh, and down-to-earth presentation that you, your wives, families and friends will all enjoy.

On the same program we are privileged to hear a report from the President of the American Dental Association, Dr. Harry Lyons. He will review the problems and discuss the aims of our national association. Our own President Edward W. Luebke will bring the greetings of our Society and the Reverend Stanley W. Mellish, minister of the South Shore Community Church will pronounce the invocation. Dr. Robert L. Kreiner, General Chairman of the 92nd Midwinter Meeting of the Chicago Dental Society will preside.

Remember these highlight dates:

Midwinter Meeting dates: February 3-6

Registration opens Sunday at 10:00 a.m.

Commercial Exhibits open Sunday at 1:00 p.m.

Scientific Sessions start Monday at 9:00 a.m.

Open House at A.D.A. Headquarters

A formal "Open House" program featuring tours of the new Central Office headquarters of the American Dental Association at 222 East Superior Street, Chicago, will be held from 2 to 4:30 p.m. daily, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 4, 5 and 6.

All dentists participating in the Midwinter Meeting are cordially invited to inspect the imposing new Central Office headquarters building at the time.

Work has just recently been completed on a seven-story addition and the complete remodelling of the old Central Office building at a cost of approximately $1,500,000, including the grounds. The new building with a modern front is one of the most attractive office buildings in the city.

Association officials will be on hand to answer questions during the tours. In addition there will be coffee and light refreshments. All dentists and their wives are cordially invited to attend the Open House.

PERIODONTICS ON TV PRESENTED BY U. OF I.

The eighth annual University of Illinois College of Dentistry one-day television presentation in periodontics will feature three well-known clinicians and will be given Thursday, February 7, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Since 1950 the University has been presenting these courses on the day following the annual Midwinter Meeting of the Chicago Dental Society.

Directing the courses, titled "Interrelation between Periodontics and Reconstructive Dentistry," will be dental educator Dr. Balint Orban of the Loyola University School of Dentistry and the Colorado Springs Dental Foundation. Assisting Dr. Orban will be two leading clinicians in the field of reconstructive dentistry, Dr. Morris Thompson, Beverly Hills, Calif., and Dr. Charles Stebner, Laramie, Wyo.

Dr. Thompson is known for his skill in the handling of hydro-colloid and his ability to teach full mouth rehabilitation. Dr. Stebner has a nation-wide reputation as a clinician and teacher. He is best known for his knowledge of filling materials and his expert development of the best methods to handle and insert them.

The morning session, conducted by Doctor Thompson, will include "Treatment and Uses of Hydro-Colloid for Developing Accurate Models in Restorative Dentistry" and "Practical Application in Various Phases of Reconstructive Dentistry." Doctor Orban will then correlate these areas with periodontal diseases.

In the afternoon session, conducted by Doctor Stebner, subjects covered will include "Interdental Contact Areas," "Gingival Margins," "Restorations" and "Respect to Soft Tissues." Dr. Orban, once again, will correlate these subjects with periodontal diseases.

The fee for the course is $25. Registration can be made with the University of Illinois College of Dentistry Postgraduate Studies Extension Division, 808 S. Wood St., Chicago 12.

NAVAL RESERVE DRILLS

Naval Reserve Dental Company 9-6, 1100 Central Street, Evanston, has scheduled drills for January 18, February 1 and 22, March 1, 15 and 29. All Reserve Dental Officers in the area are cordially invited to attend. Further information may be obtained by contacting Captain Paul H. Wells, Commanding Officer, 8000 Lincoln Ave., Skokie, Illinois.

TESTIMONIAL DINNER TO HONOR DEAN SCHOUR

Dean Isaac Schour of the University of Illinois College of Dentistry will be honored at a testimonial dinner in February for his many contributions to dentistry, and especially for the establishment of a dental research laboratory at the Dental School of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

South Suburban

A very Happy New Year to you all. . . . What do you all say we kind of finish digesting all that rich holiday food, shake the lethargy out of the attic and really get down to work to make another batch of the stuff that spends for Uncle Sam. And incidentally for our families (note sequence). . . . To those who were in attendance at the December meeting, I am sure you were well rewarded for your efforts to get out and partake of the wonderful food and sparkling entertainment. We had better be a little more careful in the future inasmuch as it is interesting to find out how much one's handwriting will reveal. . . . In the way of news, there is not too much to report at this time as most of it is in the making. Digging deep down in the bag, I come up with the item that Tiberi is making satisfactory progress with that ornery back condition of his. He can now bend over far enough to touch his knees. . . . Ground was finally broken for the new office building to house the combined offices of Sadler, Hammer, Grossi and Tiberi. Now it is full steam ahead except for the following: contractors, sub-contractors, weather suppliers, and miscellaneous annoyances all the way down the line. . . . We are happy to announce that Mrs. Dykstra is on the mend and now at home just about all recovered. . . . In the Do-It-Yourself Department, Pete Iagmin is in the final stages of having use of his hand which was injured when he fell off the roof of his new home which he was in the process of mending. . . . Pippert just tied the can on his architect and is starting the new year with a new man. Spring is a good time to start building, just stick with it, man! . . . Lloyd Bettenhausen is looking forward to his usual trip to Florida shortly after the start of the new year.—H. C. Gornstein, Branch Correspondent.

West Suburban

This column being the first of the new year, it is the desire of the officers of this Board and your correspondent to extend our best wishes to every member for a most Happy and Prosperous New Year. . . . Well, boys, the Midwinter Meeting is in the offing, and no doubt all of you looked over the preliminary program in the January 2nd Fortnightly where our own Lyle McNamara has done a tremendous job as chairman of the Program Committee. Here it is—right at your doorstep, begging you to come and increase your dental knowledge. You just can't miss. If your dues are paid, everything is free except the Limited Attendance Clinics and they only cost you three bucks a throw. So, we'll be seeing you there. . . . Dick Anderson, chairman of the Nominating Committee, announced the following nominees for branch offices: President, Wallace Kirby; President-elect, Howard Buchner; Secretary, Olaf Opdahl; Treasurer, Weston Olsen; Librarian, Robert A. Atterbury; and Ed Kritzke as Director for a three-year term. . . . Harry Smejkal made a plea at the last meeting to contribute to the American Dental Association Relief Fund. He said you are not just buying stamps, you are buying a degree of security for someone less fortunate than you. Remember, this is the Golden Anniversary of the ADA Relief Fund. . . . Bill Stoffel's new office and residence at 35th Street and 57th Court in Cicero will be completed in March. It's a group of modern air-conditioned offices with three MD's now renting. . . . We extend our sincere sympathy to Wm. O. Vopata on the passing of his father, William J. Vopata. . . . The next evening meeting will be on March 19 at the Riverside Country Club. Lou Pavlicek, program chairman, has another sparkling meeting all set. In addition, this will be the evening of election of new officers. . . . Dr. Asa LaGrow, long a member of West Suburban and a prominent orthodontist, passed away in November. Alexander Javois, a fine young fellow from Northwestern, is taking over Dr. LaGrow's office. . . . Also, very sorry to hear of the death of one of the original members of West Suburban, Dr. Ashley Hewett. He had retired from general practice two years ago. . . . Dr. Walter Wicklund lost his wife recently. Our sincere sympathy to him. . . . Care for a cigar? See proud Bert Pomatto. Your correspondent wasn't advised of the sex; maybe you can pull this info from Bert. . . . Clarence Hanson, our Director to the CDS and past-president of West Suburban, is back at his office after an enforced lay-off to give his energetic body a rest. . . . John Sipple is in the hospital with a coronary. . . . Earl Emery vacationed in the South. . . . Barney and Mrs. Mulacek left January 2nd from New York for a two weeks' cruise on Ocean Monarch with the "Seminars on Hypnosis" group. . . . Anton Jirsa sports a new Victoria and brags of the 3½-lb. northern he caught ice fishing in Grass Lake. . . . S. J. Stacknik spent the holidays at Fort Lauderdale with the family for a much needed rest. . . . Leslie Braun attended the wedding of Mrs. Braun's niece in Iowa—any excuse to take a vacation. . . . Instead of attending our own meeting, Erwin Gramke was seen playing the piano for the Englewood Old Timers meeting. . . . J. F. O'Connell, who moved recently to a new home, had no refrigerator and had to mooch off friends. . . . F. R. Hynous has also moved to a new home and office at 19th and Ridge-

Regular Meeting of the Chicago Dental Society

December 18, 1956

Conrad Hilton Hotel

The meeting was called to order by President Edward W. Luebke at 8:15 p.m. A motion to dispense with the reading of the minutes of the November meeting was passed. The minutes of the November meeting, as published in the December 15 issue of the FORTNIGHTLY REVIEW, were approved.

There were no reports of boards, standing committees or special committees.

President Luebke called upon President Thomas Starshak of the Illinois State Dental Society to present the 50-year awards to the following members of the Chicago Dental Society: Charles A. Cardy, Edgar D. Coolidge, Alfred Erickson, Z. D. Ford, Thomas E. Gilmore, Benjamin S. Partridge, and Lewis A. Platts.

Dr. Paul W. Clopper, Secretary of the Illinois State Dental Society, assisted in making the awards.

President Luebke introduced Dr. Robert F. Tuck, Chairman of the Monthly Meeting Program Committee, who in turn introduced Dr. M. G. Winograd, a member of the Program Committee. Dr. Winograd presented the essayist, Dr. Robert B. Shira of the Walter Reed Army Medical Center. Dr. Shira's discussion of Oral Surgery was exceptionally good and an interested audience received it well. Approximately 450 members and guests stayed to the end of the presentation.

President Luebke announced that the next meeting would be on January 15 and that the speakers would be Drs. Balint Orban, Frank M. Wentz and John A. Kollar. The discussion will be on periodontia. Your attendance at this meeting is strongly urged.

Respectfully submitted,

Englewood

Englewood suffered the loss of a fine young member, Ralph M. Ray, who passed away on December 13th. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. . . . Time marches on, and a new crop of "Old Timers" (men in practice twenty years) was hatched at the annual December party. "Professor" Ernie Goldhorn gave the address in good style to the following new Old Timers: Ernie Borgerding, Henry Fonjemie, John Gapsis, Mike Hayes, Jack Manning, Vince Maurovich, Walter Raczynski, Louis Sasso, Ed Scanlan, Ken Sharpe, Bob Straub and Ed Thomas. The dinner was excellent and the entertainment choice. Great credit goes to the committee, headed by Joe Plewa, of Ben Jostes, Stan Pacer, Ted Lindholm, John Seaborg, Harry Kazen and especially John Brotherson. 139 fellows turned out to join in the fun. State and city big brass were represented by the following: Ed Luebke, Pres.; Walter Dundon, Pres.-Elect; Jim Lynch, Treas.; Elmer Ebert, Editor; Bob Pollock, State Treas.; Karl Richardson, Exec. Secretary; Tom Starshak, State Pres.; Ed Stephens, Director Dental Health Ed. Comm., and Ernie Goldhorn, Vice-Pres. The free-swinging "Dry Socket" orchestra headed by Ralph Rudder and Dick Val-

Adolph Stark has been elected Vice-President of the Alumni Chapter of the Zip fraternity. He was the editor of their Bulletin for many years. . . . Bill Gubbins has been busy the past few months remodeling his basement into a recreation room. Anyone with tile-setting experience please apply. . . . I saw Oscar Cyrier the other day and he looks like a million. He is enjoying his retirement to the fullest. . . . Don't forget the MIDWINTER MEETING at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, FEBRUARY 3-4-5-6. This is the highlight meeting of the year and the best dental meeting in the world, so don't miss it. See you there.—William L. Bingaman, Branch Correspondent.

North Suburban

The year has hardly begun, and your correspondent has already broken his resolution to complete the columns before the last minute. . . . Yesterday, the Evanston Association of Dentists held their annual open house, buffet luncheon, and you-know-what. Knowing of the fine fellowship that always prevails at these events, we hopefully entered in search of news. Someone thought they heard "booze" instead of "news," so here we are, tired, late, and not too informative. A great share of the credit for the success of the party must be given to Zeke and Mrs. Smothers who again generously allowed the Association to use their lovely home. The newly installed officers of the Association include Jim Keith as president, Doug Cook as president-elect, Fred Verink as vice-president, and Carl Schramm as secretary-treasurer. . . . Zene Shafer is now back from the wars. He was released earlier than expected, and had to do quite a bit of running around to find a place to quarter his family before the holidays. . . . Arnold Thorsen left for San Diego to spend Christmas with his Naval dentist son, Malcomb. Actually, he almost didn't leave at all, for when he arrived at the station, he found that he had left his money and tickets at home. Fortunately, the railroad had a record of his tickets, and there was someone at home to forward his money. . . . Hal Chason went down to Montgomery, Ala. in November for his father's 79th birthday. His dad is still in active practice down there. . . . Maynard Cook, Jim Lynch, and Grant MacLean went to Philadelphia in November to attend Granger's advance studies in functional occlusion. . . . The big November event in the Bob Jans family came on Thanksgiving in the person of Cecilia Marie. Her dad claims that she is a real sweet gal, and he should be quite an authority as this was their fifth. . . . Our hunting story award will have to be passed on to Otto Brasmer. It seems that he and Dr. Ward Evans are out pheasant hunting, and having secured their limit, put the birds in the trunk and drove home. Their dog acted up quite a bit on the way home, but they were unable to discover why. The mystery was solved the next day when Otto went out to drive his car. There, in the back seat, was a very live pheasant. During its night's stay in Otto's garage, it had managed to do a rather thorough job of redecorating the upholstery. In fact, Otto was so mad when he saw what the bird had done, he reached in and wrung his neck. I wonder if the game warden believed his story.—

Northwest Side

The December 4th meeting was held at Stella's Restaurant. Cocktails, as usual, preceded the dinner. Dr. Frederick Holt was the speaker of the evening. He spoke on the "Use of Resins as an Anterior Filling Material." Resins must be used intelligently in high esthetic requirements and they are contraindicated in hard occlusion. Cavity preparation margins must be extended to self-cleansing areas, dentine support of enamel walls and a bulky retention. The method of insertion is flowing, brushing or beading or a combination of brushing and flowing. The best pulp protection is with calcium Hydroxide and cement base. . . . Viggo Sorensen addressed the members of the Arcolian Society. . . . Ben Davidson, Morris Schneider, Norman Kirschner, Louis Reif were guests of Eli Lilly in Indianapolis. . . . Jimmy Guerrero, tired of the old family bus, decided to buy a car which has the styling of a 1960 design, and purchased a Chrysler Imperial. Wow! Some class, Jim!!! . . . Herman Wenger was installed as Treasurer of the Illinois State Dental Society in Peoria, Illinois. . . . Joe and Anne Lebow attended the convention of Alpha Omega Fraternity and then headed for Florida immediately. . . . The legislative and law-enforcement twins of the Branch, Ben Gillmeister and Herman Wenger, are worth the price of a dinner ticket just to hear them report on what is transpiring currently. . . . Grandma and Grandpa Ted Serr spent the Christmas holidays in Port Angeles, Washington, visiting the Juniors and the grandchildren. . . . Ken and Dorothy Anderson are proud parents of a ten-pound baby boy and named him Eric Kenneth. . . . J. J. Applebaum enjoyed the Christmas holidays with his daughter, Irma, who was home on a visit from Michigan State University. . . . I love the man who can smile in trouble and who can learn a lesson from distress and grow wise on reflection. Stanley Brzezinski is that man. He smiled when he discovered his parked automobile had completely vanished on Christmas Eve. He hunted the thief for four anguished hours. He learned his lesson from this distressing situation when he had to pay the fine for being parked (No Parking Zone) and had to redeem his towed-away car (another $20) and so he grew wise reflecting on the intricate

North Side

Last chance to get your reservations for the Award Luncheon! Looks like the North Side Award Luncheon, to be held on Tuesday noon during the Midwinter Meeting, will be a sell-out. If you didn't get your reservation yet, phone Paul Brown. As mentioned before, this is an innovation with our branch—another first. The North Side Branch is instituting a series of Award Luncheons to honor the most outstanding member of our branch for his contribution to dentists and the field of dentistry. Earl Elman was selected for our first award because of his outstanding work in helping to achieve Social Security for all dentists through OASI. Luncheon tickets are $4.50, so get yours from Paul Brown. . . . Again the Workshop hit the jackpot! The Dr. Woehler two-day course was a huge success. And the assistants who were there! Each one more beautiful than the other. Everyone I talked to said he was able to "take home" many, many suggestions for his practice. Ask the man who was there. . . . Bill Osanski reports that Rufus Lee, our amateur anthropologist and explorer, is off to study the oral conditions of the "Jibaris," the head hunters, in Ecuador. Hope he comes back with his. . . . Jack Langer just came back from a trip to California. . . . Paul Brown is spending the holidays in Florida. . . . The A O annual convention was held in Boston from December 27th to January 1st. Among the North Siders attending were Stan Sherman, Morry Altus, Len Gelfand and Abe Hoffman. . . . Rube Kadens and the missus were able to spend only a week in Acapulco, Mexico, because of the illness of one of their traveling companions. Rube caught a nine-foot-three sailfish, and I think was talked into having it stuffed and mounted. Now he can claim he is a fisherman as well as a good gin rummy player. . . . Joe Gordon is doing a good job for Channel 11. Everywhere he goes, he collects for Channel 11. . . . Ed Shapiro has been having some bad times recently. A few weeks ago, he was called to California to bury his brother, and three weeks after he returned, was again called there to bury his mother, Anne. Our heartfelt sympathies, Ed. . . . Had a wonderful time as usual at the Uptown Forum Christmas party. There were prizes galore, ranging from an Anacin to a Chevrolet car. The skit they put on was almost good enough for Hollywood. Most of us had to eat lobster because they ran out of roast beef. And here is good news: The Uptown Forum is holding its 10th "Decennial" Anniversary, with a weekend party on April 5th, 6th and 7th at Oakton Manor, Peewaukee, Wisconsin. Total cost for the week end is $27.00.

This will be the "Decennial Seminar of the Uptown Dental Forum of Chicago," and is therefore tax deductible. Your $10.00 check will hold your reservation if sent to Henry Parkin, 1048 Bryn Mawr Ave., Lo 1-4117, before January 25th. Reservations will be limited, so will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. There will probably be buses for transportation or a car pool. Our very amiable and capable Executive Secretary, Karl Richardson, will be the guest speaker. So, get your reservation in early for yourself and family. . . . Got an invitation to attend a Dentist-Laboratory Relations Workshop Panel for the 9th of January. Problem is to work out relations between the ethical laboratory and the dentist to our mutual advantage. Will report more on this in the next column. . . . Don't forget! Order your tickets NOW for the Award Luncheon from Paul Brown!!! Also your reservations for Oakton Manor with The Uptown Forum from Henry Parkin!!! See you at the MIDWINTER MEETING.—*I. H. ## Kenwood-Hyde Park

We now have a fresh new year ahead of us and your resolutions should include a renewed enthusiasm for a successful year at Ole Kenwood-Hyde Park. Our next meeting will be held on March 5 when Dr. Stanley Tylman will discuss "To What Degree Does the Fixed Bridge Restore Oral Health?" Advance reservations will gladly be accepted by our congenial Dinner Chairman, Vic Wittert. Ba 1-6626 is Vic's number and he would be more than glad to hear from you now. . . . Everything now points to the Midwinter Meeting at the Conrad Hilton on February 3-4-5-6. The preliminary program proves that the Committees have been hard at it for many months and have prepared a program of tremendous value to your practice of dentistry. Be sure to avail yourself of as much of it as you can. They have also provided for some fine entertainment. Make your reservations right now for the gala Dinner-Dance to be held on Wednesday evening, February 6. Many surprises have been planned for this eventful evening. The ladies will not want to miss the Luncheon and Fashion Show on Tuesday, February 5th. The girls are moving into the Grand Ballroom this year to insure a comfortable place for all who attend. . . . Sid Berg, Jack Sarnat and Paul Goldstein enjoyed the hospitality of the Eli Lilly Co. last month. . . . Ken Johnson was recently elected Secretary of the Chicago Society of Oral Surgeons. Congratulations, Ken. . . . Rumor has it that there is an addition expected at the DeLarye house. . . . Howard Shepard brought his mother back to live in Chicago. . . . We wish to welcome Tom Rudin and Harold Stackler into the Kenwood Gang. They were the two new members introduced at our December meeting. . . . Sid Berg spent the holidays out East visiting in New York and Bos-

Father was deep in his easy chair trying to relax after a hard day at the office. Little Junior was bedeviling him with a succession of unanswerable questions.

"Daddy, what do you do down at the office?" he finally asked.

"Oh, nothing, absolutely nothing!" shouted daddy in exasperation.

Junior pondered this for a moment, then: "How do you know when you're through?"

cago will precede the annual Midwinter Meeting of the Chicago Dental Society. Alpha Omega dental fraternity is the sponsor of the dinner, and the State of Illinois Alumni Chapter will be host.

Although the testimonial will emphasize Dean Schour's work for the Jerusalem school, tribute also will be paid to his 30 years of contributions to histology and other areas to dental education and health, and to science internationally.

The host committee in charge of arrangements includes Drs. Bernard Gruber and Saul Levy as co-chairmen and Dr. Robert G. Kesel as treasurer. Reservations for the dinner at $25 are available from Doctor Kesel at Suite 1022, 77 W. Washington St., Chicago 2.

Honorary chairmen of the nationwide dinner committee are Dr. Allan G. Brodie, former Illinois dean; Dr. Willard C. Fleming, dentistry dean at the University of California; Dr. Harry Lyons, president of the American Dental Association and dentistry dean at the University of Virginia; Dr. Raymond J. Nagle, dean of dentistry at New York University, and Dr. Harry Seldin, president of the American College of Oral Surgeons.

All persons who attend or contribute will receive a specially designed sheet on which he may write a personal greeting to Dean Schour. The sheets will be bound in a volume that will be placed in the dental research laboratory in Jerusalem.

Among the speakers at the honoring dinner will be Doctor Lyons, who will serve as Toastmaster, Dr. H. E. Longenecker, vice-president of the University of Illinois in charge of its Chicago Professional Colleges, and Dr. Harold Noyes, dean of the University of Oregon College of Dentistry.
